Biggie Biscornu cushion (the giant one!)

COUNTED CROSS STITCH CHART BY TAM'S CREATIONS

Isn't that great!

Tamara of Tam's Creations is already quite a specialist of biscornu, with different series of patterns available in blackwork and cross-stitch. So it's only natural that SHE would have come up with the next great idea: making one that works as a cushion, a giant biscornu!

Now for the good news: this pattern is only 150 x 150 large, in other words the size of a medium-sized cross-stitch project. Making it BIG does not make it any longer to stitch. Using 6 strands and Extra Large Aida (6ct), this project can be made in very reasonable time.

For the back, Tam uses color-coordinated fabric, and the same technique she applies for assembling her other small biscornu. You can download her step-by-step instructions for making a biscornu with a regular fabric backing.
