CROSS STITCH PATTERN READY TO DOWNLOAD, DESIGNED BY Faby Reilly Designs

This adorable embroidery case is small enough to hold in your hand, yet it's a little masterpiece. Entirely worked in counted stitches, including assembly, it is embroidered both inside as well as outside.

Unfolded, the wallet has 3 parts:

- in the center a gusset for a pair of scissors (max 11cm/ 4 $\frac{1}{4}$ inch)
- on the left, a bit of green felt cut out in the shape of a leaf serves to hold needles
- on the right, a small pocket will hold small items such as a needle threader

The case folds in three, each side cross stitched with a different pattern. The edge is also embellished with a border of fan eyelets, worked in DMC's Coloris thread whose shades gently vary from pink to green.

A small needle-or-pin cushion, shaped like a biscornu, completes the set.

The exhaustive tutorial by Faby Reilly details the different phases of assembly, with helpful pictures at each stage.

The cross stitch motif is a variation on the theme of lisianthus flowers, combined in the foreground with delicate hydrangea petals. The threads used for the embroidery are DMC Mouliné threads and the matching DMC Coloris thread.
