Wintry Blooms

CROSS STITCH PATTERN READY TO DOWNLOAD, DESIGNED BY Faby Reilly Designs

Wintry Blooms, designed by Faby Reilly, is an exquisite arrangement of white winter flowers, arum and lily mainly, worked in cross stitch, embellished with a multitude of specialty stitches that add a dimensional effect to the stitched piece. Metallic threads, beads and sequins add extra glitter to the soft white tones.

The piece can be mounted as a biscornu which is perfectly appropriate for emphasizing the dimensional effects of the stitching. You can however also finish your work as a cushion cover central piece or simply frame it.

The chart includes some additional close-ups to make it extra-clear to read. All specialty stitches are thoroughly explained with photos. They include round Eyelet stitches combined with sequins and two kinds of Spider Web stitches. A biscornu tutorial is also included with the chart

Note: the pattern is quite extensive and comes into two separate pdf files, the 8 page main design and tutorial as well as a 4 page supplement chart with close-ups. Please make sure you download both files.
