Anne & Diana (The Friendship)

CROSS STITCH PATTERN READY TO DOWNLOAD, DESIGNED BY Gera! by Kyoko Maruoka

This cross stitch pattern was inspired by the passage in the book Anne of Green Gables by Lucy Maud Montgomery, where Anne, longing for a friend, gets to meet Diana.

"Oh, Diana," said Anne at last, clasping her hands and speaking almost in a whisper,"oh, do you think you can like me a little-enough to be my bosom friend?"

Anne is lonely. She has long been aspiring to meet a bosom friend and her expectations have built up ever since she heard another little girl was living in her new neighbourhood. Anne has red hair and finds herself unlikable, whereas she finds Diana to be the prettiest she has ever met.

The cross stitch motif featuring the two girls seated, is surrounded by a beautiful dove and daisy frame.
A complementary chart extracted from this design features 4 corner motifs that can be turned into coasters, napkins or cards.
