Butterfly alphabet

COUNTED CROSS STITCH CHART BY MARIA DIAZ

This pretty alphabet pattern features 28 different butterflies decorating each letter and two extra ones that can be used to embellish your pattern. There is also a matching numbers chart (sold separately) if you want to add numbers or dates.

You can stitch the name of a child or a friend on some terry towels using ready to stitch towels or a large Aida band that you stitch first and then apply to a regular towel.

You can combine these butterfly letters to form names or words to cross stitch. We suggest printing out another copy of the chart so you can cut up and combine letters such as in the example below with the word PRINCESS.
