Perrette Samouloff - Tahiti (cross stitch pattern chart)

Tahiti

COUNTED CROSS STITCH CHART BY PERRETTE SAMOUILOFF

The island of Tahiti lies just across the equator from Hawaii and Tahitian share their sunny lifestyle with all polynesian islanders. Tahiti's beautiful "vahine" have been immortalized by the likes of Matisse and Gauguin who stayed in the tropical paradise.

This delightful pattern by Perrette Samouloff pictures a group of Tahitian children playing and dancing in their traditional costumes. Their tanned skin and lush hair offer a beautiful contrast with the bright and colorful dresses and the garlands of white and red hibiscus.

The elements of this design can easily be switched around to suit your project. Below is an example where the motifs have been rearranged in a landscape format.
